Lancen, Serge (1922)
_Concerto for Harp and Band._
Pub. Molenaar Editions BV.
Art.nr.01 2056 08 0.
Price € 150.28 Score € 19.54 Part € 4.51

“It was his charming wife Raphaële, a fine harpist, who drew Serge Lancen’s attention to the harp. He has written various works for this instrument, such as: "Pour Raphaëlle", "Duo Concertant" for harp and flute, "Crépuscule" for two harps, "Concerto Champêtre" for solo harp and chamber orchestra, and many pieces in a lighter vein for harp quintet and this Harp Concerto. The initial cadenza was inspired by Camille Saint-Saëns Second Piano Concerto a work which Serge Lancen studied as a young boy. The Harp Concerto can be played with a symphonic band, a string orchestra or the piano.
This work, dedicated to his wife, was premiered in July 1990 during the First Le Havre International Wind Band Festival , by Marie-Pierre Cochereau and the Le Havre Municipal Symphonic Band, conducted by Philippe Langlet.” - Publishers website
